A elergyman remarked from a New York pulpit on Sunday that half the women seen in the streets of this city "paint their cheeks in order to get face beauty." adding that Seauty may be acquired only through love and that happiness is the best cosmetic.

"Paint your cheeks with happiness," was the recommendation of the Rev. Christian F. Reisner, pastor of Grace Methodist Church. Yesterday the originator of this novel beauty cult told me just how the new cosmetic should be applied, first, however, amplifying the accusation that the New York woman is not so fair as she is painted, or rather as she paints herself.
